- Teaching is the most noble profession. A teacher has a sacred duty to perform. The responsibility of shaping the character of children rests on him. Apart from developing their intellect, he can inculcate in them qualities of being a good human, remaining neat and clean , talking decently and sitting properly. These virtues are difficult to be imbibed. Only he who himself leads a life of purity, simplicity and rigid discipline can successfully cultivate these habits in his students. Besides a teacher always remain young. He may grow old in age, but not in spite. Perpetual contact with budding youth keeps him jolly and happy. There are moments when worries weigh heavily on his mind, but the delightful company of innocent students makes him overcome his transient moods of despair.
